

CADOMA FOUNDATION NOTECARDS

CELEBRATING OVER 100 YEARS OF WYOMING HISTORY

Let's Sit a Spell!

Ah! Fresh Snow for the Holidays!

So Glad You are Here!

Note cards are reproductions of original watercolors depicting the Bishop Home in Casper, Wyoming. Proceeds support the Cadoma Foundation, a Wyoming non-profit corporation committed to the preservation of Wyoming's historic property.

Cards are 4 1/4" by 5 1/2" and sold individually for $2.00 or 6 cards for $10.00. Postage and handling are included.

To order cards or for additional information, contact info@cadomafoundation.org

About the Artist: Helen Cooke has been doing art since her early years, beginning formal studio work at the college level in Casper when she was still in high school at Natrona County High School. She learned modern methods of oil painting and acrylics from the popular Western artist Edwin Gothberg. Helen studied under famed sculptor Robert Russin, while pursuing her B.A. at the University of Wyoming.
