

HISTORIC BISHOP HOME CELEBRATES

“AN OUT OF THIS WORLD EVENT”

ON JUNE 22, 2019

Our Second Annual Historical Throwback Event commemorates the 50th anniversary of the Apollo 11 Lunar Landing.

The Historic Bishop Home invites you to blast out of this world and remember where you were July 20, 1969.

“ONE SMALL STEP FOR MAN,
ONE GIANT STEP FOR MANKIND.”

THE EVENT LAUNCHES AT 4:30 P. M. ON JUNE 22, 2019

AT

THE HISTORIC BISHOP HOME

WITH WINE TASTING AND INTRODUCTION

OF

Ms. Ryan Landon Prouty

Manager of the Mission Integration and Operations Office for the International Space Station Program

AT

6:00 P.M The SECOND STAGE WILL ROCKET TO THE LYRIC

TO ENJOY A PLATED PRIME RIB OR SALMON DINNER CATERED BY BERNARD – THE SILVER FOX!

Master of Ceremonies, Robert Price, will mingle with guests to share their memories of that historic event and lead a paddle raise to help fund the Iconic Historic Bishop Home Façade Restoration, Access, and Operations.

After dinner, Ryan L. Prouty, will talk about what we did 50 years ago to land on the moon and what we are doing today to take humans into space.

Time will be available for questions and comments.
